TEMPUS–THE YEARBOOK

Harry,
To a real groovy guy, just remember to be good and stay out of trouble. Don't hang up again, okay? Okay! When you going to cut the grass? Oh, I forgot, you're lazy!

Always,
Hannah

Harry,
Well, to one of the nicest guys in our class. Never forget our lively Civics class and the times we've been in and out (mostly in) trouble. Good Luck and Behave!

Always
Kathy

Remember

Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more day by day
You tell me of our future that you planned.
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve;
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

Student Life

because you take life in your stride(instead of scheming how to beat the noblest game a man can proudly lose, or playing dead and hoping death himself will do the same because you aren't afraid to kiss the dirt (and consequently dare to climb the sky) because a mind no other mind should try to fool has always failed to fool your heart but most(without the smallest doubt)because no best is quite so good you don't conceive a better;and because no evil is so worse than worst you fall in hate with love

Foreword

To everything there is a season,
  and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born and a time to die; . . .
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
  a time to mourn and a time to dance; . . .
A time to get and a time to lose;
  a time to keep and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
  a time to keep silent and a time to speak;
A time to love and a time to hate;
  a time of war and a time of peace.

The Faculty

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.
